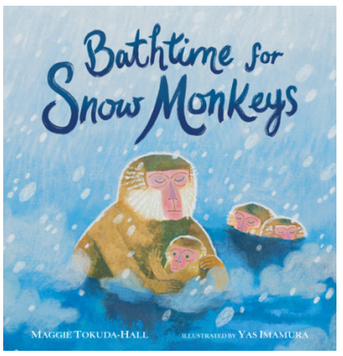
J-Sei Artisan Faire

Book sales & signing

Meet the Authors!

Sunday, December 6, 2026 • Atrium ~ 2nd floor

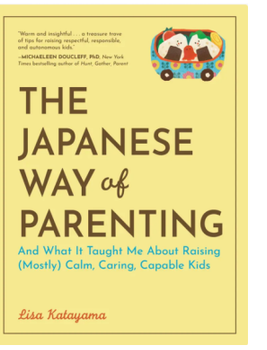


11:30 am
Bathtime for Snow Monkeys
by Maggie Tokuda-Hall

Written entirely in soothing haiku, this exquisite children's picture book pairs gentle verse with beautiful illustrations to showcase Japanese macaques finding warmth and togetherness while relaxing in the winter hot springs of Nagano.

12:30 pm
The Japanese Way of Parenting
by Lisa Katayama

In this fascinating half-memoir, half-parenting guide, Lisa Katayama shares her quest to raise her American kids using Japanese parenting principles—combining unconditional love with unwavering rules.

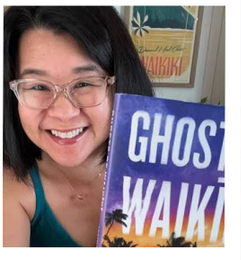


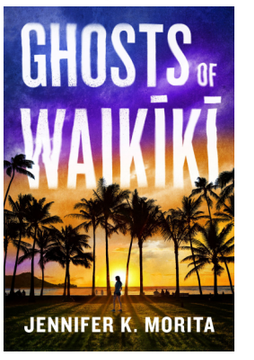
1:30 pm
The Discovery of K-Pop
by Oliver Chin

Part of the Asian Hall of Fame series, this illustrated non-fiction children's book takes readers on a time-traveling journey from ancient Korea to the modern internet to explore how K-pop evolved into a global musical phenomenon.

2:30 pm
Ghosts of Waikīkī
by Jennifer K. Morita

In this award-winning debut mystery novel, an out-of-work journalist returns home to Hawai'i to ghostwrite a biography, only to find herself investigating a suspicious murder alongside her detective ex-boyfriend while navigating the local socioeconomic impacts of tourism and development.

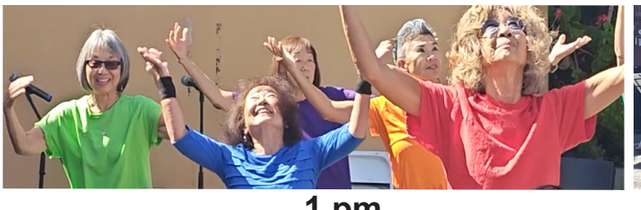




Enjoy Live Performances

Outside Stage

12 noon
J-Sei Singers



1 pm
Let's Groove

2 pm
Community Ukulele